

DAB+ distribution

Description

2wcoms approach for DAB+ distribution via satellite is comprised of a fully redundant, interconnected dual supply chain concept in which the single point of failure is moved to the simplest and most robust component (satellite redundancy switch). If a device fails in one chain, the other chain still supplies the following stage. FlexXtract at the uplink station can be used to monitor each chain and the uplink for any service problems.

SAT uplink

SAT downlink

transmitter

ETI

TS (MPE; optional GSE)

IP (EDI)